CODERS & STORYTELLERS

GLOBAL AI CHALLENGE

AI is changing the world. But here is the big question: Will it change with us, or leave us behind?

You are invited to join the HI-5 Grand Challenge:

We are looking for students aged 15 and up from every corner of the globe to team up with myPaloma: a new kind of AI.

It is ethical. It is sustainable. It respects diversity.

But it isn't finished yet. That's your invitation!

The Coder:

★★★★★

You love solving puzzles, asking "how does this work?", or want to protect the digital world.

The Storyteller:

★★★★★

You are a creative, a writer, a designer, or someone who wants to make sure the human voice is never lost.
